Profile

Graphic Designer

I am a detail-oriented graphic designer dedicated to crafting impactful identities through immersive visuals. My passion is reshaping brand identities by seamlessly blending creativity and strategy, offering unique design experiences that tell captivating brand stories. I have designed visual narratives for clients like Samsung, Unilever, Nestle, L'Oréal, Cheetos, and more, focusing on comprehensive campaigns and FMCG packaging design. Simultaneously, as a freelance designer, I consistently delivered distinctive designs for cafés, restaurants, and digital spaces, aligning with timelines and budgets. I aim to leverage these skills to contribute to dynamic brands in a creative, collaborative environment.
